

STUDENT CONDUCT ON SCHOOL BUSES

The right of students to ride a school bus is contingent upon their good behavior and their observance of established regulations.

The driver of a school bus shall be responsible for the safety of the students on his bus, both during the ride and while students are entering or leaving the vehicle. Therefore, it is the bus driver's duty to notify the transportation director and the principal of the school involved if any student persists in violating the established rules of conduct.

After due warnings have been given to the student and to his parents, the principal may withhold from the student the privilege of riding the school bus.
