

INTRAMURAL PROGRAMS/INTERSCHOLASTIC ATHLETICS

School sports constitute a part of the total school program. Although differing in nature from the academic program, intramurals and interscholastic athletics can only be justified as they provide a profitable educational experience for the participants and are available to all boys and girls who can benefit from them.

Interscholastic sports programs shall be subject to approval by the Board. Approval shall be granted only at junior high school and high school level.

In the conduct of interscholastic athletic programs, the rules, regulations, and limitations outlined by the Wyoming High School Activities Association shall be followed.

Eligibility requirements for participating in athletic programs shall be set by the school administration and shall conform with regulations of the WHSAA . They shall include the requirements that a student have the written permission of his parent or guardian and shall have been determined as physically fit for the sport by a medical doctor, osteopath or other medical personnel as authorized by the Wyoming High School Activities Association.

Additionally, all students participating in interscholastic athletics must be properly insured.

Current practice codified 1977
Adopted: date of manual adoption
Revised: 12/10/97