

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS SELECTION AND ADOPTION

Supplementary materials are defined as those resources that complement the key instructional materials approved for each common core knowledge and skill area. Recommendations for the purchase of supplementary materials will be approved by the building principal and shall be contingent upon the degree to which the materials meet the criteria established in policy IIA, Instructional Materials.

Adopted: 06-08-98